palestine west bank and gaza business law handbook volume 1 strategic information and basic laws the palestinian author an anthropologist based this book upon her field work under palestinian women in galilee israel in which the palestinian israeli conflict is vividly alive the content of this book corresponds roughly to five interrelated fields of meaning and power in which reproduction is caught up and constructed nation economy difference body and gender this book examines key questions and challenges the widely prevalent view that the palestinian authority collapsed because of its internal governance failures its lack of commitment to democracy and corruption it argues that the analytical framework of good governance is not appropriate for assessing state performance in developing countries and that it is especially inappropriate in conflict and post conflict situations instead an alternative framework is proposed for assessing state performance in a context of economic and social transformation this is then applied in detail to different aspects of state formation in palestine showing that the institutional architecture set up by the oslo agreements was responsible for many of the serious failures though modern urban planning is only a century old it appears to be facing extinction historically urban planning has been narrowly conceived ignoring gaping inequalities of race class and gender while promoting unbridled growth and environmental injustices in transformative planning tom angotti argues that unless planning is radically transformed and develops serious alternatives to neoliberal urbanism and disaster capitalism it will be irrelevant in this century this book emerges from decades of urban planners and activists contesting inequalities of class race and gender in cities around the world it compiles the discussions and debates that appeared in the publications of planners network a north american urban planners association original contributions have been added to the collection so that it serves as both a reflection of past theory and practice and a challenge for a new generation of activists and planners this country gender assessment cga conducted in palestine s west bank and gaza strip examines existing gender roles and gaps between men and women in agriculture and rural development and explores practical needs strategic interests and perspectives on gender equality the assessment presents existing policies strategies plans and programmes and highlights the main challenges and opportunities for enhancing gender equality in agriculture and rural development the cga concludes by discussing the findings and providing a list of recommendations the author offers a strategy proposal for resolving the arab israeli conflict in the middle east arguing that the existance of a palestinian state would guarantee a humane and safe israel contributors consider six major themes institutional planning structures and housing policies land use and tenure regulatory frameworks including building codes and standards housing alternatives and options for conservation and renewal financial services for housing and urban development and the construction industry
