the present publication is a continuation of two earlier series of chronicles philosophy in the mid century firenze 1958 59 and contemporary philosophy firenze 1968 edited by raymond kijibansky as with the earlier series the present chronicles purport to give a survey of significant trends in contemporary philosophi cal discussion the time space covered by the present series is approximately 1966 1978 the need for such surveys has i believe increased rather than decreased over the last years the philosophical scene appears for various reasons more complex than ever before the continuing process of specialization in most branches the emergence of new schools of thought particularly in philosophical logic and the philosophy of language the convergence of interest though not necessarily of opinion of different traditions upon certain prob lems and the increasing attention being paid to the history of philosophy in discussions of contemporary problems are the most important contributory factors surveys of the present kind are a valuable source of knowledge of this complexity and may as such be an assistance in renewing the understanding of one s own philosophical problems the surveys it is to be hoped may also help to strengthen the socratic element of modem philosophy the dialogue or kommu nikationsgemeinschaft so far four volumes have been prepared for the new series the present chronicles in the philosophy of language and philosophi cal logic vol i are followed by chronicles in the philosophy of science vol ii and philosophy of action vol

these articles are mainly concerned with medieval french literature particularly those areas in which the honorand of the volume rupert t pickens has distinguished himself old french arthurian romance marie de france chanson de geste later poetry including villon and the occitan troubadour lyric among the contributors are some of the most significant scholars from the u s a canada france switzerland and the u k working in old french studies today the volume will be of interest to specialists in old french occitan and medieval literature generally some of the articles deal with relatively unknown works and all are informed by current developments in medieval literary studies listening was the spirit of the age as the invention of psychoanalysis and of radio marked the turn of the twentieth century virginia woolf and the age of listening brings together contributions which tune into that acoustic quality at once present in woolf s time in her texts and in the readings which here echo those very listening techniques indeed the listening mind as a reading surface for the receptivity and reconstruction of sound waves embodies a shift which informs the thinking of many chapters in this volume in their attention to listeners in the text and to those who make up the work of reception in both english and french these readings consider woolf s oeuvre as an echo chamber reverberating with intertextual echoes in a multi layered representational network they form a constellation of answers to the call of the age of listening
